Homecoming 2001 Extravaganza

The theme, “The Wonderful World of Rowan: Where Dreams Live” says it all for Homecoming 2001. The excitement and enthusiasm experienced during Homecoming activities is unparalleled by any other activity during the year. The Homecoming week’s events started off with Delta Sigma Theta’s Annual Cook Off on October 23rd. Then on October 24th pageant contestants smiled and strutted their way across a stage in the Student Center in their efforts to be named King and Queen of Homecoming 2001. Lip Synch occurred on October 25th and was enjoyed by a packed Student Center crowd. On October 26th, the Powder Puff game was followed by the Pep Rally, Bonfire, and Fireworks Spectacular. Then finally on October 27th the Homecoming Parade and Football game took place. For all that participate, the anticipation of the two months prior to Homecoming week is unsurpassed. All their work paid off as the students were able to prove how wonderful the world of Rowan truly is and that dreams are alive and well in the student spirit.

Who wants to be Royalty?

As supporters filled the Student Center Pit, pageant contestants anxiously awaited their chance to shine. The Pit was decorated with red, white and blue theme. Sixteen women and seven men competed for the honor of wearing the crown. The Master of Ceremonies for the night's activities was communications studies professor Ed Streb, who introduced the contestants in their business wear to the elation of the crowd. The pageant consisted of three portions, business wear, casual wear, and ultimately formal wear. The contestants were also given a chance to make a philosophy statement to the judges as well as their peers. The audience was entertained, while waiting for the next portion of the pageant, by the Asian Cultural Association's fashion show, the talented vocals of Kevin Dabney and Tramaine Foye and the 3D Dance Troupe performance. With great anticipation the 2001 royal couple and court were announced. Awards were presented by the Homecoming Queen of 2000, Janine Jones, and the first runner-up for Homecoming King 2000, Melvin Moore. Irene Mandeville and Thomas Greco were selected as second runners-up. Jennifer Marie Nasser and James Andrew Stokes were named first runners-up. Then finally, Matthew Walker and Tracy Joyce Stouthamer were named Homecoming King and Queen 2001.

Rowan students further expressed their spirit at this year's Homecoming Pep Rally, Bonfire and Fireworks Spectacular on October 26th. Students got fired up as the Bonfire lept through the dark night sky. The assemblage of students was enough to make any Rowan student proud to be a Prof. A replica of Kean's mascot the Cougar was created to further the excitement level of the crowd and athletes. As the Prof danced and strutted his spirit around the intramural field, the teams of Rowan were introduced as they walked through the cheerleader's lines. The band played on to rally the whole field into a deafening scream as students chanted and jumped around. The pre-game psych feast always proves to bring the spirited people out. The Homecoming King, Queen and court were present to help represent Rowan spirit. Attendance included almost all the sports teams, many sororities and fraternities, plus some faculty and staff joined in on the fun. This coveted Homecoming celebration was thoroughly enjoyed by all and could be heard from all corners of campus. This exciting Pep Rally served its purpose well as the football team prepared to face Kean the next day. Rowan students definitely know how to get their peers fired-up to play an awesome Homecoming football game.

The streets of Glassboro were filled with dancing, singing and a thick excitement as Rowan students assumed their parts in the Homecoming Parade on October 27th. This is the second year that the Parade has included Glassboro High School. The parade flowed down High Street, down onto Carpenter Street and then stopped in front of Rowan Hall to perform in the parking lot for the judges. The parade consisted of 8 cars and an amazing 14 floats. During half-time of the Homecoming football game the winners were announced. The 1st place in the Greek competition as well overall was Sigma Pi and Alpha Sigma Alpha's float and skit "The Grinch Who Stole Homecoming." Also in the Greek competition, Kappa Sigma and Sigma Sigma Sigma took 2nd place and 3rd place was awarded to Alpha Epsilon Phi and Theta Chi. In the General Competition, 1st place was awarded to Campus Players, B.O.T.D.A., Lab Theatre and Dance Extensions for their moral play about the true spirit of Rowan. The Newman Club, Crosseekers, RCF and Chi Alpha took 2nd place and 3rd place went to the SAB. Students spent many hours planning and practicing their skits as well as building their floats at fluff and fold gatherings. The long preparation for the Parade was well worth it all.

Rowan University Profs VS. Kean University Cougars

As the bleachers filled with the most enthusiastic crowd Rowan has seen in years, the Prof's football team prepared to play a most memorable game. This year's annual Homecoming game was played against the Kean University Cougars on October 27th. The Profs went into half-time with a 36-0 lead and ended three quarters of play with a total of 56 unanswered points. Quarterback Tony Racioppi led the way, completing 17 of 23 pass attempts for 278 yards and four touchdowns. Al Beverly was the leading receiver with six receptions for 95 yards and two touchdowns. Many other offensive players contributed to this great triumph. Rowan's defense dominated the game holding Kean to only one touchdown. The Cougars' only touchdown occurred in the fourth quarter on a 7-yard touchdown pass. The Profs rush defense held the Cougars to just 85 yards passing and -16 yards rushing. The excited crowd cheered when the Profs advanced and showed that they were the best Homecoming football crowd. Students, family members, alumni, administration, and all that attended enjoyed Rowan's 56-6 blowout. This win moved Rowan back into second place in the conference with a 3-1 N.J. Athletic Conference record and a 6-1 overall record. GO PROFS!

"What Is Your Sex?"

Student Government Association President's Address

Jen Holdsworth

To the Student Body of 2001-2002,

As the Student Body President of the 2001-2002 academic year, I would like to offer warm congratulations to the Class of 2002. Along with this institution, the students who have attended it have also grown, changed, and improved in many different areas. The incredible experiences we have gained both inside and outside the classroom have provided us with an amazing foundation that we can take to any profession we choose. I am confident that as you finish this chapter in the story of your life, you will be fully prepared to face all challenges you encounter.

I feel honored to have worked and interacted with many of you. We each will carry different memories from this institution. I can only hope that each of those memories bring joy and happiness to enrich your lives. I wish the best of luck to the graduates in all of their future endeavors.

Sincerely,
Jen Holdsworth
SGA President 2001-2002

Class of 2002 President's Address

Regina Lewis

To the Class of 2002,

As we finish another chapter in the book of our lives, we are faced with a lifetime of opportunities. Our life is what we make of it. There will always be trials to bear, but what we take from those experiences will shape and prepare us for what is to come next. We all were placed at this University for a reason. The challenges and the special moments are ours to cherish forever. This is a time of retrospect and self-evaluation. The nights you thought you couldn't make it, you did. Never give up on your goals. We made it this far and there is no telling what we can achieve.

Dreams are what we make them and I plan to dream big. No matter what has happened thus far, there is always a chance to start again. Find what it is that makes you happy and begin to build from there. Never let your vision die. Keep your focus and your spirits high. Whatever paths you decide to take in the future always remember to stay true to yourself. If you won't, then who will? All that has happened and all that is to come doesn't matter if it is not what you love. The road you will follow starts within yourself. So make it true, make it real, and most importantly make it fun.

I wish you all much success and happiness. Oh and by the way,

CONGRATULATIONS!!

Sincerely,
Regina Lewis

The Rowan Student Government Association is more than your average student organization.

— SGA is the students voice to the administration. It is the SGA's responsibility to represent the student's best interest to the university administration.

— SGA promotes students to use leadership skills and provides opportunities to develop these skills further by having SGA members attend leadership conferences.

— SGA oversees and funds all SGA chartered student organizations on campus.

— SGA encourages students participation in events and organizations.

The best part about SGA is if you don't like it, YOU can change it!

SGA sponsors many events on campus such as the "Jail and Bail" held in the Student Center Pit.

Rowan University President's Address

President's Office

Spring, 2002

Dear Rowan Graduate:

Please accept my congratulations for having successfully completed your degree at Rowan. Based on past experience, I am confident you are well prepared to enter the next phase of your life. We are proud of your accomplishments, and I hope you share that sense of pride.

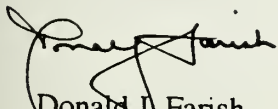

We talk a great deal about the Rowan family, and I think we do so sincerely. The fact that you are now a Rowan graduate does not mean you are no longer a part of that family. To the contrary, it is our hope that you remain connected to us. By providing feedback and insight, you can help us become an even better university in the future. As our reputation grows, so will the value of your degree.

We will endeavor to do our part. You will soon begin receiving copies of the Rowan Magazine, which we send to all graduates (if you keep us up-to-date on your home address!) This award-winning magazine will allow you to stay current with projects and people on campus, and if you permit it, will allow us to celebrate in print your success in life. You are now automatically a member of the Rowan Alumni Association, and I hope to see you at alumni events both here on campus and throughout the eastern region of the country.

Commencement is just around the corner. It is a time of mixed emotions. We are proud to see you graduate, but are saddened that you will no longer be a part of our daily lives. I can assure you, from more than 30 years of experience, that each of you is special to at least one member of our faculty and staff. I hope you decide to stay in contact with the people who were special to you. Nothing gives more joy to a professor or a staff member than to hear of the successes of their former students.

Once again, my congratulations on a job well done. I look forward to seeing you at Commencement!

Sincerely Yours,

Donald J. Farish
President

ROWAN UNIVERSITY

ROWAN

UNIVERSITY

The Image...What an Experience!

Editor-in-Chief: Laura E. Hausman

Assistant Editor: Bill A. Walczak, Jr.

Coming Full Circle. What does that mean to you? To me it means completing another circle of life, finding myself again a senior. Creating this yearbook for my peers was more than a project it was an experience I will never forget. I had spent my first three years here at Rowan leading my own centered life. I took my stay here for granted, then my eyes were opened by a circle of events which involved the yearbook. The responsibility of the yearbook was given to me and it opened whole new doors in my college career that I hadn't even fathomed existed. I learned more than layout and program techniques, I learned that there was something very special about being part of our higher-education institution. Our ranks are extremely diverse in all fashions imaginable but we are all here for the same basic reason, to further develop ourselves towards achieving our dreams. I realized what an honor it is to be a student at this University and that although I may not know all the men and women I am graduating with, we are all connected by the Rowan family circle. Some people call it closing another chapter and beginning another but I call it Coming Full Circle.

Thank You All for this Great Opportunity,

~Laura E. Hausman~

Special Thanks to:

Emmy Kachel & Taylor Publishing; thanks Emmy for being there whenever I needed your publishing expertise or just a friend.

Frank Spitali & Davor Photography; thanks Frank for being there whenever I called with a catastrophe and being able to fix it.

Andrea L. Pujat; thanks for leaving me a great model to work from and helping me out when I needed a guiding hand.

Derek Gunter; thanks for being a great friend for the past two years and talking me down when it seemed like we were the only two people in our right minds, keep in touch SDC.

My Mom, Carole E. Sebastian who graduated from Glassboro State College in 1975; as the second generation of our family graduates from Glassboro/Rowan (and you thought I wasn't going to make it), I'd like to thank you for being you and for all the years you have dedicated to my life, I will love you eternally for that.

And last but certainly not least Bill; not just my right hand, but the right side of my body. This yearbook would never have been completed had it not been for you, your love, infinite patience, and ability to do just about anything. I love you. Thank you.

Also: Ed Ziegler, Dr. Farish, Joy Reign, Sheila Stevenson, The President's Office Staff, Lori Beth Estadt, Heather McDonald, Jennifer Holdsworth, Regina Lewis, Becky Huskins, and Annette McCully

< Stealing much of the headlines were the events on and after Sept. 11th. More than 3,000 people lost their lives at the twin towers of the World Trade Center, the Pentagon and aboard the four hijacked commercial airliners. Also getting the spotlight were the rescue workers and volunteers who were recognized by all Americans as heroes. Sadly, it also marked the end of R&B sensation Aaliyah, another one of the Beatles' fab four, George Harrison, and legendary comedian, Jack Lemmon. <

< After Sept. 11, sitcoms offered plenty of laughs. "Undeclared" centered on quirky college roommates faced with the freedoms of being away from home for the first time. The bewitching comedy, "Sabrina," conjured up strange changes as she became a college sophomore. "Gilmore Girls" explored the odd relationship between a mom with a heart of a teenager and a teenage daughter that acts like an adult. "Angel" used its dark humor to reveal the twists and turns of a vampire avenger in L.A. <

< As with everything else, it was a strange year for music. How else can you describe the success of the soundtrack "O Brother, Where Art Thou?" and Michael Jackson's less than "Invincible" return as the King of Pop? But that didn't stop 'NSync, Britney Spears, Usher and the like from commanding the airwaves. Country music got a kick from Tim McGraw who was named CMA Entertainer of the Year, while ears couldn't get enough of newcomer Alicia Keys' "Songs in A Mirror." >

Selected from nearly 2,000 hopefuls, this boy band lived out their musical dreams before the eyes of millions of viewers in the reality show, "Making The Band." Making it big after a hit single, "Squid Dreams."

It was another blockbuster year in Hollywood. "Pearl Harbor's" stunning special effects were a big hit. Singer Mandy Moore teamed up with Shane West in a sweet, idealistic love story that brings out the young romantic in everyone. Speaking of true love, young and old fell head over heels for "Shrek." Also in the field of computer-generated optical illusion, "Final Fantasy" proved to be another artistic masterpiece. In contrast, Angelina Jolie brought the video game "Tomb Raider" to life, transforming into the tough archaeologist/adventurer Lara Croft. <

< Technology continues to evolve at dizzying speeds. More compact and personal, mp3 players are killing the portable CD star. Now, CDs and mp3 files ripped off the net can be transported from the PC to your ears anywhere you go. Not to mention, portable DVD players let you catch your favorite movies on the run. Dean Kampen also unveiled the Segway Human Transporter that totally reinvents the wheel. Apple is changing the way people view technology with a new iMac designed around a 15-inch LCD flat screen. Amazing. <

< What were the haute fashion trends? For starters, low-rise jeans were in. And credit Madonna for causing people to switch from the baseball cap to the tattered, straw cowboy hat. The look changed after Sept. 11. People showed their true colors with the return of Old Glory and by wearing "I Love NY" t-shirts. The hair: rough, tumbled and tousled emerged to contrast elegant styles for a balanced look. For zooming around, let's not forget the shoes. >
